Meeting customers outside the bank or after hours is nothing new for the Private Bankers at Commonwealth Bank. They epitomize our "doing more" philosophy. Acting as personal relationship managers, they have the experience and willingness to do whatever it takes to make things easier for their clients—from opening accounts, to giving advice, to connecting clients to the right departments. If you want a banker who'll do more for you, and your money, call Susan Roberts or Wendy Key O'Banion in the new Private Banking offices at our corporate building on the corner of Brownsboro Road and Hubbard's Lane: 259-2460.
